It is our goal to properly assist you in choosing a pet that best fits your lifestyle, wants and needs. Our staff is trained in animal behavior and customer service, so that we will provide professional guidance that will allow you to decide which pet is right for your circumstances. We reserve the right to deny any adoption that will not set up the pet for success. Further, all prospective adopters must be in good standing with the WPHS. Notice: In addition to adoption costs, WPHS reserves the right to assess applicable fees.

I certify that all of the above information is true. I understand that giving false information on this application maybe grounds for denying my application and adoption.
